One day, a witch was making a superhero potion for her nephew Jason, so he could stop the supervillain.

Her husband Gilbert swung the door open, knocking a single Goldfish cracker into the pot.

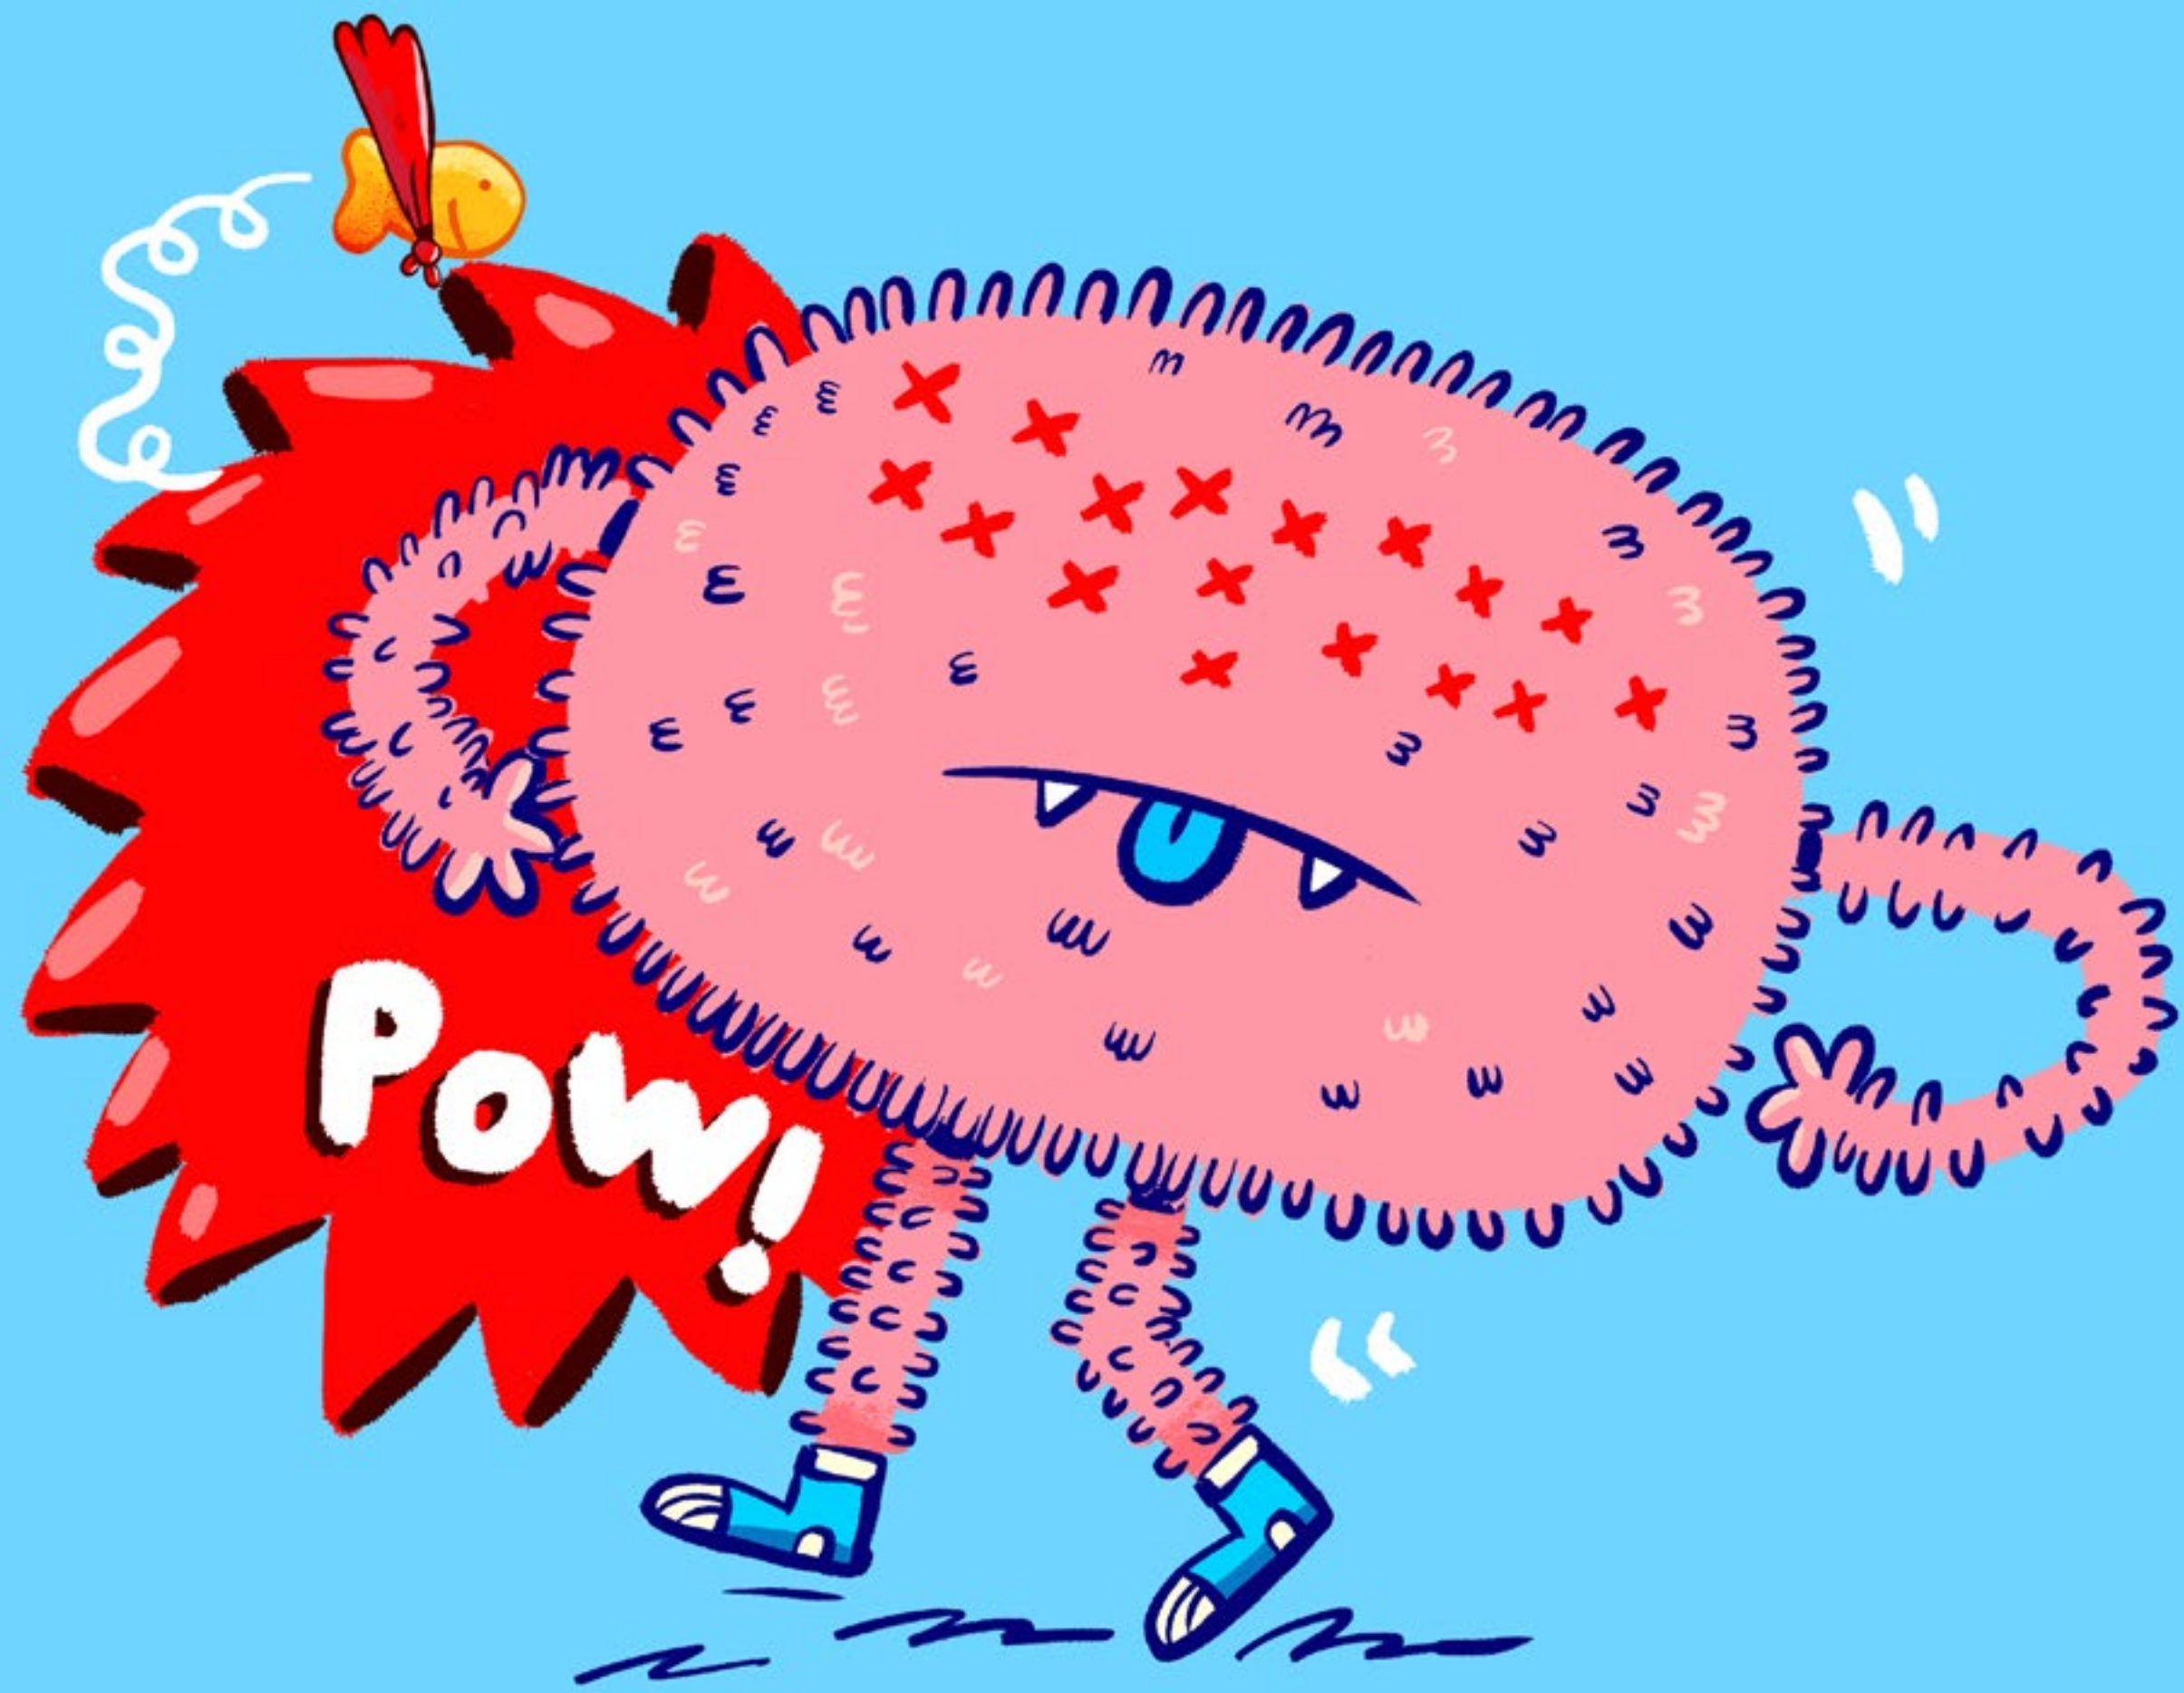

Two hours later, a superhero
Goldfish emerged!
Could he stop the supervillain?

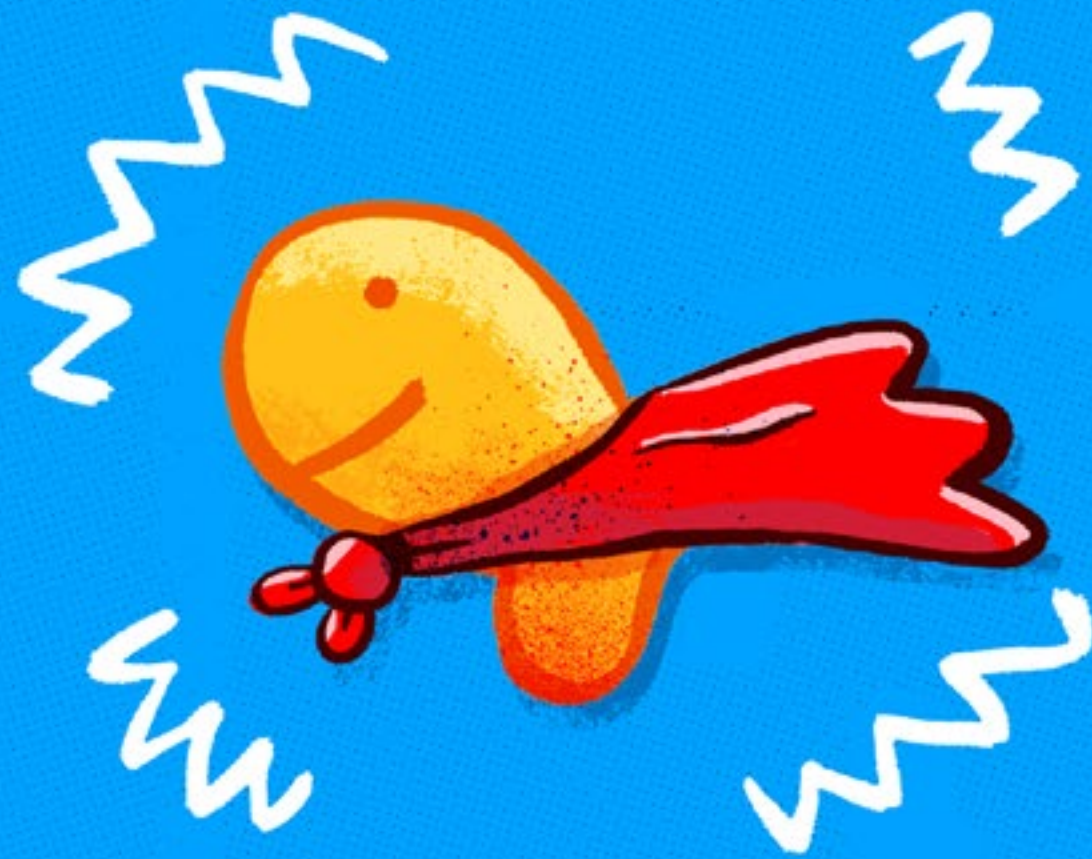

The supervillain had many eyes,
but it never saw the Goldfish coming.

After an epic battle, the Superhero Goldfish conquered the villain and flew away a hero.
